CURRENCY COUNTER CARRYING CASE

The KLOPP Currency Counter Carrying Case is the perfect solution for transporting your Bill Counter to wherever you need it. The Case is made from ballistic nylon for durability and tear-resistance. All four sides, the top, and the bottom are padded for impact protection for your bill counter. The Case has industrial-grade zippers on the sides, and you can open them up partially, or all the way as you prefer. There are inner pockets on both sides that can hold the power cord, papers, money straps, pens, etc., and there are three metal clasps on the front to hold your Case closed while carrying it.
